

STAT

Miss Cross Bride Of Mr. Roosevelt

Miss Linda Ballantine Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cross of Cambridge, Mass., became the bride yesterday of Mr. Kermit Roosevelt, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt. The bridegroom is the great grandson of President Theodore Roosevelt.

The ceremony took place in St. Thomas Chantrey in New York with Dr. Frederick Morris and Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr officiating. A reception followed at the River Club.

Mrs. John Landon Hawkins of New York, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were the Misses Jac Barlow of this city and Valerie Horst of New York. Miss Anne Cooper Roosevelt, sister of the bridegroom, was the flower girl.

Mrs. Lothrop Motley Weld of Duxbury, Mass., was honorary matron of honor for her sister, and Miss Fanny Quincy Howe of Cambridge was honorary maid of honor.

Mr. Jonathan Roosevelt was his brother's best man. The ushers were Dr. Arthur S. Couch of Cambridge, Mr.

Thomas Lloyd III of Katonah, N. Y., Mr. Michael Harrington Humphreys of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. Weld and Mr. Hawkins.

The bride, granddaughter of Mrs. Arthur Atwood Ballantine of New York and the late Mr. Ballantine, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cross of Weston, Mass., was graduated from the Beaver Country Day School of Chestnut Hill and attended Radcliffe College.

She was presented to society in Boston at the Debuteante Cotillion in 1958 and is a member of the Vincent Club.

Mr. Roosevelt is the grandson of Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt of New York and the late Mr. Roosevelt, and Mrs. Avery Gaddis of Cambridge and the late Mr. Houston Gaddis of Virginia.

He was graduated from Groton School and Harvard College, class of 1960, where he was a member of the Hasty Pudding Club and the Spee Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt will live in New York where he is a student at Columbia Law School and she is a student at Barnard College.